As such, while collecting, processing and managing all such information, including your email addresses and contact numbers, we have processes in place to ensure that such information is kept securely on our systems and in compliance with the Data Protection Act 2017 of the Republic of Mauritius.

This commitment is driven by our compliance team that oversees the collect, storage and use of personal data in the Company.

All our employees observe the strictest confidentiality in respect of any information acquired in the course of their duties or in connection with their employment relating to the affairs or business of the Company, any member or employee of the company, the clients of the company or any person dealing with the company.

All information obtained in the execution of the duties entrusted to any employee of the Company remains of a confidential nature and is not to be divulged to anybody outside the company except in the course of its business operations and under strict control and supervision of the Data Protection Officer and the Compliance Officer.

3. Data Protection Act

Mauritius regulates data protection under the Data Protection Act 2017 (DPA 2017 or Act), proclaimed through Proclamation No. 3 of 2018 and effective on January 15, 2018. The Act repeals and replaces the Data Protection Act 2004, so as to align with the European Union General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (GDPR).

The DPA strengthens the control and personal autonomy of data subjects over their personal data in line with international standards, namely with the GDPR and the European Convention for Protection of Individuals with regards to automatic processing of personal data. The DPA also aims to align the Mauritius provisions for data protection with the current and challenging technological and other advancements that have occurred.

4. Data Protection Office

The Data Protection Office is a statutory body which is entrusted with a wide range of enforcement powers to ensure that the principles of data protection are observed. It promotes awareness of data protection laws, ensures compliance with those laws, investigates complaints and cooperates with supervisory authorities of other countries. It is headed by the Data Protection Commissioner, who is a barrister of not less than 5 years' standing.

5. Collection of Personal data

The Company is regulated and licensed by the Financial Services Commission of Mauritius as an investment dealer company. As part of our licensing conditions and in order to fulfil our legal and regulatory requirements in Mauritius, we need to undertake "Customer Due Diligence" on our clients to whom the Company provides/shall provide services.

We need your personal data in order to provide you with a full range of investment dealer services and ensure that our CDD are properly carried out based on your personal data.

All information provided to us is strictly confidential and are not disclosed or revealed to any person or party whatsoever unless we are legally required to do so to a regulatory body or a court of competent jurisdiction in Mauritius or abroad.

6. Data record keeping

Under the Mauritian law and as required by the Financial Services Commission, we are required to keep personal data as follows:

- As long as you are a client of the Company

- Where the purpose for keeping personal data has lapsed, the Company shall destroy the data as soon as is reasonably practicable and notify any processor holding the data to destroy the data as specified by the Company
- When a person is no more a client of the Company, for a period not exceeding ten (10) years in line with the prevailing laws of Mauritius. After this period, such personal data will be destroyed.

Where you have consented to receive updates and similar materials from us, any personal data held by us for that purpose will be kept by us until such time that you notify us that you no longer wish to.

7. Your rights

Should you believe that any personal data we hold relating to you is incorrect or incomplete, you may request to see this information, rectify it or have it deleted. If you still feel that your personal data has not been handled appropriately according to the law, you may contact the Data Protection Office in Mauritius and file a complaint with them. In the event that you wish to complain about how we have handled your personal data, please contact us on info@dynamicmarkets.com
